

People and Networks matter Enabling sustainable bioeconomy transition

BioWiseTrans Conference

Karlstad, 27-28 March

The Quintuple Helix RIS

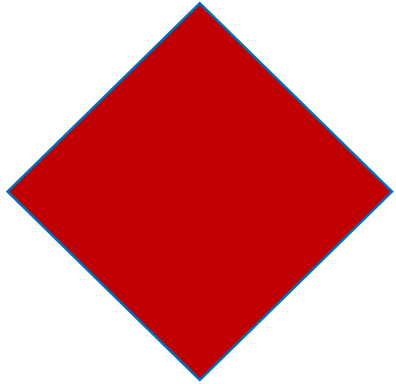

A Bioeconomy where stakeholders bring
- different interests and
- different knowledge to the table

Warm Welcome to the Plenary session:
The Future of the Bioeconomy in
Norden and beyond

Very short Intro by Michael Kull & Hilikka Vihinen

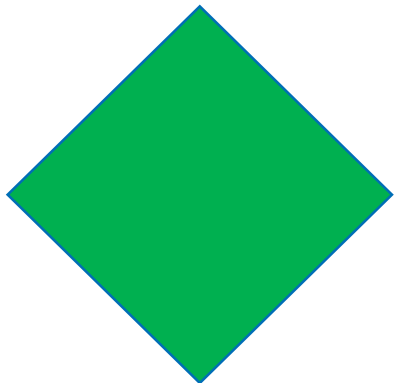

Small task for You – Each Session Guest

Main obstacles / challenges in the transition towards towards a sustainable, fossil-free bioeconomy

Main enablers / good practices so far

Recommendations: what should happen

Rough Timeline

- 10:45-10:50: Very short intro: The aims of the session by Hilkka & Michael
- 10:50-11:10 What have we learned, what to propose - Summary from each workshop A-D
- 11:10-12:00 Roundtable Discussions with keynote speakers & Involving YOU

Panellists

- Prof. Pekka Leskinen, Head of Bioeconomy Programme, European Forest Institute.
- Thea Lyng Thomsen, Development consultant at GreenLab, Denmark.
- Prof. Olav Wicken, Professor at the Centre for Technology, Innovation and Culture at University of Oslo, Norway.
- Runa Skyrud, Project leader, Tretorget AS, Norway.

What have we learned, what to propose

-

Summary from each workshop A-D

Roundtable Discussions with keynote speakers & Involving YOU

Question 1

Your immediate reactions on the group findings?

Question 2

Main obstacles & main enablers / drivers
for a transition towards a sustainable, fossil free bioeconomy?

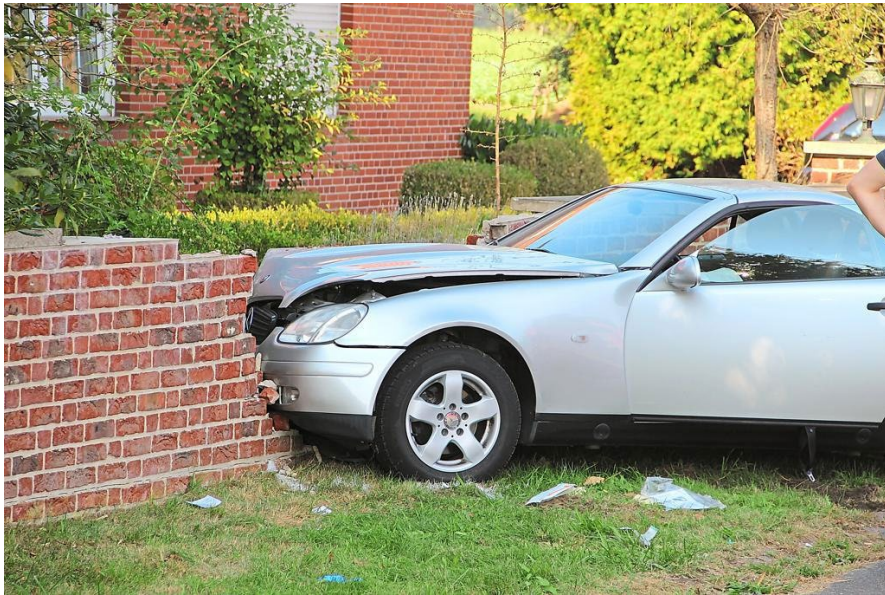

Photo: Björn Meyer, source <https://www.azonline.de/Muensterland/2532969-Unfall-auf-der-B-51-Auto-durchbricht-nach-Auffahrunfall-Mauer>

Source: <http://oceanrainforest.com>

Question 3

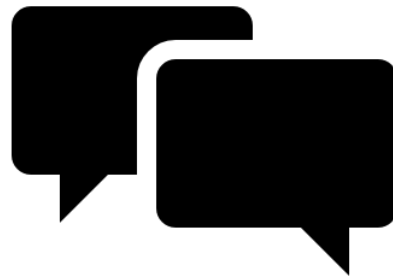

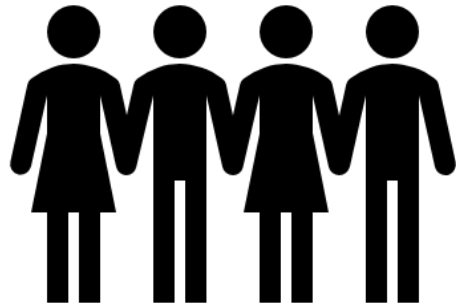

“People and Networks Matter”:

- How do they matter
- How to make sure that all who have a stake can matter
- How to create commitment

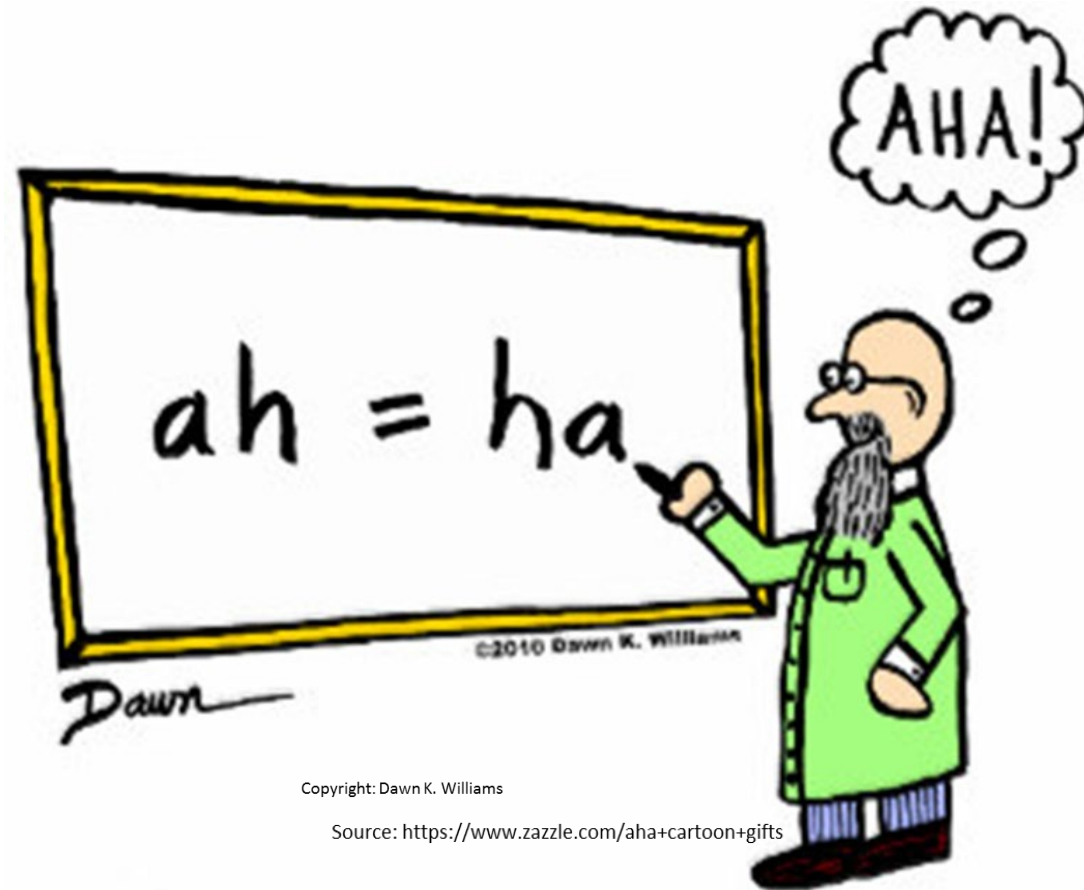

<https://www.vf.se/uncategorized/karlstad-forst-ut-att-flyga-med-biobransle/>

Questions / comments from audience

Main take-aways / lessons learned

Copyright: Dawn K. Williams

Source: <https://www.zazzle.com/aha+cartoon+gifts>