Application Guidelines for the appointment/promotion of professor or senior lecturer and appointment of associate senior lecturer

You submit the application via the University's web based recruitment tool. To be able to apply for a position you need to register an account. There is a link to follow in the ad. The account also provides an overview of your previous applications and you can reuse some of the information. You can save the application and finish it later, as long as it takes place within the period of application.

You should attach publications, articles and other enclosures to the electronic application. Three copies of submissions that cannot be sent electronically, for example books, publications, CD discs, should be sent to the following address: Karlstads universitet, Registrator, 651 88 Karlstad, Sweden. Please, state the Ref.no. of the position.

All documents must be delivered before the application deadline. Applicants are responsible for documenting qualifications in a way that allows for an objective and qualitative assessment of candidates. Qualifications will be assessed on the basis of submitted documentation. Quality, rather than quantity, will primarily be considered. Remember to enclose certificates of a doctor's degree, associate professor (docent) appointment and other relevant documentation.

Application should include the following items:

1. Letter of application
2. List of qualifications (CV) with attachments and references
3. Account of teaching qualifications
4. Account of research (or artistic) qualifications
5. Account of administrative and additional qualifications
6. Future plans (separately, or included in accounts 3-5)
7. List of publications
8. Publications
9. Certificates verifying education, assignments, appointments

See below, more detailed information for each item.

Letter of application

Includes:

- The post or applied for, including the reference number, or the request for promotion
- Name, title, home address, phone numbers, e-mail, etc.
- Personal introduction

List of qualifications

Recommendation is that the list of qualifications is concise and clearly arranged. It should include:

- Education and Degrees, with copies of certificates enclosed
- Employments, with copies of certificates and letters of recommendation
- Research projects, research grants, etc.
- International and national networks, conference and seminar contributions, etc
- Supervision
- Administrative functions
- Language skills
- Other qualifications relevant to the post

Account of teaching qualifications

According to the Higher Education Ordinance as much attention should be given to the assessment of teaching skills as to the assessment of research skills. Some examples of what an account of teaching skills can include are listed below. Some areas border on or overlap with other areas such as research skills. The enumeration is not to be taken as a requirement but as a suggestion of ways to document teaching skills.

Applicants from non-academic environments are requested to document teaching skills from their organisation in similar ways through references etc.

Pedagogical philosophy

Describe your pedagogical ambitions, visions and goals and the means by which you will achieve them.

Teaching skills

Documentation can include syllabi, course instructions and evaluation results, descriptions of course structure, process, examination and result.

Supervision

Supervision of degree projects, supervision of doctoral students, and post-graduate teaching experience.
