Show tunes, jazz and folk songs with Malena Ernman & Nils Landgren

At the DAISIE conference you will have the unique opportunity to see the two famous Swedish musicians Nils Landgren and Malena Ernman perform in the concert concept of Nisse's Corner. The performance will be translated into English and made available for an international audience, exclusively for the DAISIE conference.

Nils Landgren has a long international jazz and big band career and has played with stars like ABBA, the Crusaders and Eddie Harris. He is also an honorary doctor at Karlstad University and has previously been a member of the university board.

Malena Ernman has performed on the world opera stages, in musicals, and in the Eurovision Song Contest 2009 with the song "La Voix". She is the mother of two daughters, one of whom is the world known climate activist Greta Thunberg.

In October 2020, Nils Landgren and Malena Ernman visited Karlstad University's Ingesund School of Music with the concert concept of Nisse's Corner. Both artists are former students at the School of Music and together they offer a mix of show tunes, jazz, and folk songs, as well as relaxed conversations. The concert was broadcast live on Youtube, and watched by 750 people.

In the show, the artists perform together with teachers from Karlstad University's Ingesund School of Music: Robert Henriksson - piano, Alfred Lorinius - double bass, Mattias Pérez - guitar, and the student Elias H. Sandqvist on drums.

Don't miss the unique opportunity to enjoy this meeting of music and conversation with two internationally renowned artists, available in English for the very first time, exclusively for the DAISIE conference.
