

Research and innovation support at Karlstad University

Grants and Innovation Office

The value propositions from Grants and Innovation Office

GIO supports the development, funding, impact, and integrity of research and innovation at Karlstad University.

- Support researchers in building research capacity, relevance and reputation, and to utilise research.
- Support staff and students in developing their innovative ideas.
(part of Innovation Office Fyrklövern)
- Support university management regarding strategic development of research and innovation at Karlstad University.
- A key actor within the regional research and innovation system.
- Connecting with national, EU and global research and innovation systems.

Value Prop 1: Support researchers in building research relevance and reputation, and to utilise research results.

- Research strategy and funding development
- Application process and review
- Connecting researchers with public/private actors
- Driving research and innovation funder relations
- Competence development of researchers
- Compliance/ integrity

Value Prop 2: Support staff and students* in developing their innovative ideas.

The innovation support is delivered partly based on the Innovation Office Fyrklövern, the cooperation between Karlstad University, Linneaus University, Mid-Sweden University and Örebro University

- Idea development and verification
- Provide proven methods and tools for developing innovative ideas
- Competence development of researchers and students
- Connecting researchers and students with public/private actors
- Connecting researchers and students with regional, national and international innovation system networks

 In cooperation with Drivhuset Karlstad*

Value Prop 3: Support university management regarding strategic development of research and innovation at Karlstad University.

- Research and innovation strategy including funding development
- Application process development for funders with management protocols
- Driving research and innovation funder relations
- Strategic support of prioritised funding calls with competence development elements
- Non-financial compliance/ integrity process development
- Research quality process development
- External monitoring regarding research and innovation development

Value Prop 4: A key actor within the regional research and innovation support system.

- Research and innovation strategy including funding development
- Connecting researchers and students with public/private actors
- Connecting researchers and students with the regional innovation system
- Driving research and innovation funder relations
- Support to university management

Value Prop 5: Connecting with national, EU and global research and innovation systems.

- Research and innovation strategy including funding development
- Connecting researchers and students with public/private actors
- Connecting researchers to national and international innovation system
- Driving research and innovation funder relations
- Support to University management

Grants and Innovation Office

gio@kau.se

www.kau.se/gio

