

Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences

Doctoral Programme Course

Course Approval

The syllabus was approved by the Board of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences on 25 May 2015 and is effective from the autumn term of 2015.

Discipline/Main Field of Study

Comparative Literature; English

Course Title

Seminars and Presentation of Research

Higher Education Credits

3 ECTS credits

Language of Instruction

Swedish and English

Degree Level

Doctoral

Target Group and Prerequisites

Admission to a doctoral programme.

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the course, doctoral students should demonstrate

- that they can support the learning of others,
- knowledge of the opportunities and limitations of literary and language studies, and
- the ability to place their own research in a societal context.

Course Content

By reading and reviewing texts written by other doctoral students and by discussing their own texts, the course aims to develop the ability of participants to contextualise their own research in a broader sense, both academically and societally.

Course Literature

See separate document

Examination

Outcomes 1–2 are assessed through the presentation of own texts and the critical review of texts written by others in PhD seminars. Outcome 3 is assessed through an oral presentation, preferably in held English during the final year of the doctoral programme, in which doctoral students contextualise their research from a societal perspective.

Grades

One of the grades Fail (U) or Pass (G) is awarded in the examination of the course.

Quality Assurance

The outcomes achieved and students' conditions for learning are evaluated during and after the course. These results shall be taken into account for the planning and development of subsequent offerings.