Rules

- In special circumstances, students may, on their own request, get permission to sit an exam abroad.
- There is no guarantee that an exam can be arranged abroad. Each case is considered on its own merits and circumstances.
- The exam rules at Karlstad University also apply to exams taken abroad. Arranging an exam abroad can only be done if its legal certainty and adherence to guidelines can be assured.
- The exam must be taken on the same date and at the same time as the exam is in progress at Karlstad University.
- Request for exam abroad must be submitted to the course administrator no later than four weeks before the exam date (late submissions will not be considered).
- Students are responsible for contacting the embassy/partnership university at which they wish to sit the exam.
- Whether sitting an exam at an embassy or a partner university, signing up for it via My Kau no later than four weeks before the exam date is always required.

NB!

Documents submitted to the university are public documents which may be made available on a person's request.

Places where the exam may be arranged

- Exams can only be arranged abroad at a Swedish embassy/consulate or at a Karlstad University partnership university.

Costs

- Students are responsible for any additional costs incurred in connection with the exam.

Request process

- The student submits the completed request form for sitting an exam abroad to the exam administrator.
- The student signs up for the exam via My Kau without selecting a place in the system.
- The exam administrator considers the request and contacts the person named on the form as the contact person at the embassy/university abroad.
- The exam administrator forwards the request form to the examiner for the course which makes a decision.
- Copy of the request form with decision is returned to the student via e-mail.
